What makes you stand out as a candidate for the respective position that you are running for?

Ambition. Our District is filled with bright and passionate members, but we need a leader who can transform possibility into reality. When you possess not just a passion but a drive for a certain cause, you are willing to go to much greater lengths and put in much more effort to achieve your goals. This kind of determination is exactly how I approach the office of District Governor. The position of District Governor carries a lot of weight, not just because of its status, but also its potential to have a far-reaching impact on the communities throughout the CNH District. As your next District Governor, I will not only serve as a pillar for the District, but also push the boundaries of this position and maximize my potential to bring about change. Another characteristic that distinguishes me is the ability to both learn and problem-solve. This has led me to the realization of how we can truly bring about this 'change' that's so often discussed: marginal improvements. The sheer vastness of the CNH District makes it impractical to implement radical new policies all at once, so instead we need to start fine tuning the little things. From the quality of service, to transparency in communication, to member education, we have a variety of areas that we can build upon and further develop. Working on these different aspects bit by bit is how we can turn our efforts into compounded achievements, pushing us into an era better than ever before.

What defines a truly meaningful contribution to service in Key Club? How have you strived to embody those principles in your contributions?

One thing many people do not realize is that service can take on many forms. In fact, over the course of my 5-year journey in the Kiwanis Family, I have discovered three different forms of service that each have had a profound effect on my understanding of service. The first—and most obvious—definition is physical volunteerism. At first, I was that volunteer, waking up at 7am on the first and third Saturdays of every month for the local 'HOPE' food bank. Later, I became an Executive Assistant for my Division, discovering the second 'pillar' of service: community building. Receiving a warm welcome into the Division environment by presidents and DLT members inspired me to do the same for others. Thus, at every event, I sought to foster an individual relationship with members while creating an environment for them to make new friendships as well. But by far my most treasured contribution in Key Club has been through the value of leadership. The single most powerful tool a person can have is the ability to influence others, and Key Club has allowed me to use that as a force for good. As Lieutenant Governor, I've gotten the opportunity to spark the flame of service in the numerous people I've met. This has been very fulfilling, because while volunteering at an event can have a positive impact on the present, inspiring someone has potential implications for an entire lifetime. This is what has motivated me to run for office of District Governor.

What makes you stand out as a candidate for the respective position that you are running for?

I am (as the people around me like to say) "Key Club crazy." The reason I've been called this is because of the insane amount of time I have spent preparing for this moment for 3 years as well as countless hours I've spent, whether it was during my time as my home club President, Division Executive Assistant, or Lieutenant Governor of my division. Even the Kiwanians in my town know me as the Key Clubber who attends all their events and meetings. I love the community I have built in my division; it feels like a family. What I do in Key Club makes me feel like I have an impact on others and have become more social and confident. It has also made me realize how much I love helping people, whether it's a club secretary who needs help submitting their MRF or a Kiwanian who needs help with their club's project.

As a Lieutenant Governor, I strived to make my members feel connected to the organization. If I am elected to be your Governor, I will make CNH feel more connected, both within the district's membership but as well as with other branches of the Kiwanis family. My main goal would be to make sure that Key Club is something that sticks with members even if they decide not to stay with the Kiwanis Family. This organization has changed who I am for the better, and I want to make sure it does the same for others.

What defines a truly meaningful contribution to service in Key Club? How have you strived to embody those principles in your contributions?

A truly meaningful contribution to service in Key Club is one that promotes helping others and shows initiative as a leader. Key Club is more than fundraising for our preferred charities; we are here to build our home, school, and community, so our contributions would be greater if we helped local organizations to truly serve. We should be good servant leaders and promote change even outside of Key Club. As long as we show consistency and commitment, our contributions add up to creating a great impact!

When I hosted my 2023 Officer Training Conference, I wanted it to be an event that not only educated officers on their roles, but also showed them the impact we have as a group. So, I planned a partnership with the RecoverED Project (in which our chaperone was the founder's mother), an organization that helps people with eating disorder recovery. We made care packages with components such as leis, fidget toys, stress balls, and bracelets in between presentation sessions. Seeing the tears in her eyes as she saw our dedication to the cause showed members (and myself) how meaningful our actions are. I made sure they could see the connection between leadership and how that can have an impact on service. This not only educated officers on their duties to their club, but to their community. Anyone can be a leader and promote good quality service that directly impacts their community. Together, we as CNH can change our communities!

MARIA GILANI

What makes you stand out as a candidate for the respective position that you are running for?

I believe that one of my defining qualities that sets me apart from the rest of the candidates would be my dedication and passion. Despite being a newer member to the organization by the end of my Sophomore year, I was able to run for Lt. Governor and was elected. Just like the CNH District, my Division has seen a tremendous decline throughout the years however, through providing resources and one-on-one communication I was able to put an end to this. Furthermore, it is apparent that Key Club is not like other clubs and CNH is not merely a District, we are a family, a Ohana, which is why as District Governor I hope to create District-Wide events that truly display our passion for service and our family spirit. Throughout my time in Key Club I have noticed that there is a tremendous amount of pressure placed on our officers and they are often burnt out pretty easily. Considering that our clubs are the foundation of our District, we need to prioritize providing support/resources to our clubs and officers, as Governor I would like to hold bi-weekly office hours in order to implement this strategy. This can tie into our directives and goals for example, during dues season clubs may struggle with paying dues. Through our Office Hours and communication with the Executive Board I will be able to provide our clubs with the support they need to grow which will ultimately allow CNH to grow as a whole.

What defines a truly meaningful contribution to service in Key Club? How have you strived to embody those principles in your contributions?

A meaningful contribution to service in Key Club isn't just merely showing up at events, it's having a genuine impact on our communities and those around us. A meaningful contribution to service in Key Club can be defined by our core values. Caring, caring about our community, caring about others, and caring about the impact that we can have through service. This core value is our main motivation for service and defines our impact worldwide. This value is even in our Key Club Motto: "Caring - our way of life". The next core value is inclusiveness, this means being open to new ideas and being welcoming. Being inclusive is essential in community service as we should ensure that our contributions help all in our communities. Personally, character building is my favorite core value as through being a leader and serving our community in Key Club, we not only build our own character but also build up others and our community which really emphasizes the value of community service. Lastly, there's leadership, whether you are an officer or not we can all display leadership through service, taking the initiative and time out of your day in benefit of your community displays your willingness to take charge, exemplifying your leadership. I have worked to display these core values throughout my time in this organization. For example, through appointing a diverse DLT, delegating tasks, and communicating with officers and advisors in my Division I have displayed those core values.

- ◆ Continue working towards goal of 32,000 Dues-Paid Members
- ◆ Introduce the Strategic Planning Committee
- ◆ Introduce District-Wide service projects to promote current initiatives (i.e. SOSP and Gov. Project)
- ◆ Host bi-weekly office hours to provide support to clubs, officers, and members across CNH

I hope to make your...

Widen

- Widen access to resources within the CNH District
- Hold monthly office hours available to all members throughout the district.
- Provide members the opportunity to hear from their executives and receive support if they may be struggling.
- Create District-Wide Mentorship Program - pair clubs across CNH based on club AAR scores.

Incorporate

- Create a new District Strategic Planning Committee
- This committee would work with LTG's and Presidents to analyze individual clubs and assess their needs and areas of improvement.
- Through the creation of action plans they will be able to hold these leaders accountable and provide resources for the growth of their clubs/divisions.

Strengthen

- "The CNH District can only be as strong as our Individual Clubs".
- To expand and strengthen CNH we must first strengthen the clubs within CNH.
- Prioritize the distribution of Club Rush resources as well as additional resources following Club Rush to ensure that our clubs cannot only gain members but retain their membership as well. This is especially crucial around Fall Rally, where membership and service start to decline.

Harmonize

- CNH is not just a district, we are an Ohana, or a family.
- Increase District Relations through the creation of District-Wide projects and a mentorship program to foster a wider sense of unity.
- I will not only be a leader for our District but, a representative as well.
- I will prioritize allowing clubs and members to share feedback with the CNH District.

...come true!

What makes you stand out as a candidate for the respective position that you are running for?

My dedication to consistent communication. Throughout my time serving as a Lieutenant Governor, I have made communication my number one priority. From carefully crafted monthly update emails to direct messages with club officers to even a Discord server for members, communication has allowed my division to work towards our goals, increase member education, and most importantly, build connections between members of our dedicated community.

However, while consistent communication has strengthened my division, in my eyes, its most lasting impact has been on myself. With every new officer I messaged to answer their question about dues or Kiwanian I talked to after giving division updates at a Kiwanis DCM, I found myself growing closer and closer to the members of my Key Club family. Communication had not only empowered my division but had also helped me find my ohana.

As District Governor, I will utilize effective communication across multiple scales, whether it be opportunities for direct support and feedback for members, core calls with Lieutenant Governors, or monthly updates to Kiwanis divisions. Communication is an integral part of any team, and with it, I am confident we can cultivate new connections and strengthen an already-present passion to serve for all members of the CNH District.

What defines a truly meaningful contribution to service in Key Club? How have you strived to embody those principles in your contributions?

Whenever someone asks what my "Key Club Moment" is, I never hesitate to respond. The answer is indisputable: the Kiwanis Special Games. After waking up early on a Friday morning and standing under the beating sun for hours, I was tired and unsure of what to expect next. But as I saw the huge smiles of the children as they sprinted around the track, cheered on by crowds of Key Clubbers and Kiwanians, my inhibitions melted away. As I stood there, cheering at the top of my lungs and high-fiving every kid that passed, I realized that I had directly contributed to the joy they felt that day. And to me, this simple impact is what constitutes a truly meaningful contribution to service.

From that moment on, I have most cherished the small moments where this impact is visible. While I will never forget running on stage in a penguin onesie at Fall Rally North or winning at Region Training Conference campfire, what ultimately motivates me to continue my Key Club journey are the genuine interactions with those who you've brought joy to through service. It's when the local resident thanks you for helping to clean up the beach or the hospital sends you a handwritten letter expressing how much the children love their new bracelets. And as a leader, I strive to bring these experiences to new members to inspire them to join our community of student leaders and show them the true impact they can have on those around them.

What makes you stand out as a candidate for the respective position that you are running for?

My attention to detail and desire to strive for excellence allows me to stand out as a candidate. As Lieutenant Governor, I have learned the importance of having a strong work ethic and a continuous desire to improve, while also developing a burning passion for service. Throughout the term, I communicated with Club Presidents and Secretaries to complete the Monthly Report Form (MRF) accurately and on time, analyzed the MRF to strategize ways to improve the strength of clubs, and worked with clubs to help reach their goals. These experiences allowed me to identify some of the largest areas of growth for clubs in the division and develop strategies to help clubs improve the future. Through these efforts, I was able to significantly increase service, fundraising, and Annual Achievement Report Scores of Division 22 Komohana this term. As District Secretary, I plan on utilizing and expanding the methods I used in my division to improve the district as a whole. I aim to provide resources for Club Secretaries and Lieutenant Governors to increase the accuracy of MRF submissions, such as a Secretary Video Series released on CNH's social media platforms. In addition, I want to provide direct support to Lieutenant Governors regarding the MRF so that they can assist Club Secretaries in their divisions. I plan to utilize my strengths and share my passion for service to help our district soar to new heights.

What defines a truly meaningful contribution to service in Key Club? How have you strived to embody those principles in your contributions?

A truly meaningful contribution to service are the moments where you can directly connect with the members of your community. Although I found many contributions to be meaningful, the service projects where I give back to my community are the most impactful. Whether it's serving breakfast on Mother's Day morning with the Kiwanis Club of Kaneohe or helping out at our local elementary schools during school breaks, these projects show me how much service can impact our homes, schools, and communities. I felt accomplished after each project, knowing I did something for the community I grew up in. Seeing the bright smiles and hearing words of gratitude from community members make every minute spent in service worth it. Every service project is another opportunity to give back, no matter big or small. At each event I go to, I strive to make the most of the opportunity presented and promote the core values of Key Club through service, so that other members can experience their own meaningful contributions in Key Club. Seeing the impact of service and how it directly affects others opened my eyes and motivated me to dedicate myself to giving back to others. Looking back on my Key Club journey, I realized that these moments shaped me into the person I am today. By building connections through service, our impact on the community is limitless.

What makes you stand out as a candidate for the respective position that you are running for?

I'm a highly organized individual with a strong eye for detail. These are essential qualities for a secretary, and I consistently demonstrate them in everything I do. In my previous experience, I managed multiple tasks simultaneously, ensuring all deadlines were met. For instance, a project I am currently working on is an art competition from my high school in partnership with our local credit union and the school's business club (FBLA, which I am part of). I'm proficient in Microsoft Office Suite and other project management tools which are commonly used by secretaries. I'm confident that my skills and eagerness to learn will make me a valuable asset to your team. I'm excited about the opportunity to contribute to CNH in this role.

What defines a truly meaningful contribution to service in Key Club? How have you strived to embody those principles in your contributions?

I'm passionate about building a strong and supportive community within Key Club. Key Club's focus on service aligns perfectly with my belief that acts of care and support have a powerful impact. In my culture, tithe and charity are important, but for me, the most fulfilling service involves direct interaction. I find Key Club to be a great place to put these values into action by forming a healthy and caring environment for those around me, and by participating in service projects that directly benefit our community.

This system lets secretaries record their activities right away, instead of waiting until the end of the month to pile everything in at once. This way, keeping the MRF current will be a snap!

NETWORK

CNH is a massive district with hundreds of schools. I want to create networking opportunities for interclub exchange and personal development. What makes you stand out as a candidate for the respective position that you are running for?

As a past club secretary and a current Lieutenant Governor who has worked with both the club and division MRF, I know firsthand that it can be a daunting task. What makes me stand out as a candidate for District Secretary is my knowledge of the MRF, my empathy for others, and my joy to help. I have both the tools and the means to help anyone with sections of their MRF that they need clarification on. Based on how many people need support, the organization of my MRF-targeted office hours may change. Instead of individual help, I will demonstrate filling out an MRF in real time to show the club secretaries what theirs should look like. My main goal this past term was to build connections within my division, and a large part of that came from my ability to connect with people and help them feel comfortable asking for assistance or advice. Similarly, being a Varsity Track Captain, I have built a strong community while still giving constructive criticism.

However, I understand that being present in real time won't always be possible, thus I also plan to make clear videos on some of the more commonly challenging secretary topics such as Annual Achievement Report (AAR) and Member Recognition Program (MRP). By connecting with members through both live and pre-recorded resources, I will bridge the divide between the Executive Board and Club Boards.

What defines a truly meaningful contribution to service in Key Club? How have you strived to embody those principles in your contributions?

The most impactful moment in my Key Club journey was during my sophomore year, when we held a bake sale to donate to Doctors Across Borders after major earthquakes in Turkey and Syria, knowing this would connect with the large Syrian population near our school. I got to talk with many incredibly generous individuals donating to our cause, and I learned so much from those small experiences. I have chased that feeling ever since: the pride of hearing honks of approval from passing-by cars and the priceless conversations that I was able to have. A meaningful contribution to service in Key Club is most simply when you help your direct community, giving back to them in whatever ways they need it most. It's acting selflessly, knowing that the reward for your actions is a better life for others. In order to help with this process, I will create a Community Outreach Form, which will guide clubs and divisions on how to reach out to individuals and organizations in their communities so that they can gain valuable insight into what issues are most prevalent in their communities. This, along with increased publicity surrounding the Service Project Database, will allow clubs and members to find relevant projects and feel the same passion for service that I've discovered, knowing that whatever event they're participating in is actively doing good.

What makes you stand out as a candidate for the respective position that you are running for?

Growing up, I have lived in multiple cities throughout my life. Sitting by myself at lunch, confused at the bell schedules for the different schools, and the awkward tension of trying to introduce yourself in front of a group of friends that have been together since they were fresh out of the womb. These are all experiences that I am much too familiar with. However, these exact experiences have led me to develop the skill set to adapt. Therefore, my capability to be placed in a situation full of discomfort and unfamiliarity and adapt to these changes is exactly what sets me apart from the other candidates. As I have walked along through my Key Club journey, I have experienced all sorts of new ideas and events that I would've never even dreamed of in a million years. However, these fresh aims led me to strive to achieve more, to bring essence to the district. As your District Treasurer, I hope to further enhance the dues payment process and membership experience through fun and innovative ideas such as engaging fundraisers, new Instagram overlays, and more. Key Club has done so much for me in the past years, igniting new passions within me and truly allowing me to grow as a person. Therefore, I hope to serve you all not as the individual I am now, but the individual that Key Club took a chance on.

What defines a truly meaningful contribution to service in Key Club? How have you strived to embody those principles in your contributions?

Within Key Club, the people you meet are usually those that you don't see everyday. However, whenever I go to a Key Club event, there is always someone that stands out. Those that don't make the loudest rustle, but a quiet stomp. The ones that come early to set up, that stay behind to clean up. The ones that commit so much of their time, but don't expect a thank you. The ones that commit so much of their time, but never boast about what they do. These individuals are the ones that truly embody what it means to be a service leader, one who truly contributes to service and comes with the intention to help others. Truthfully, in my earlier years, I won't say I was always like this. Back then, I liked to brag about staying behind and helping, or boast about helping without asking. However, just as it's important to be one who helps without entitlement, it is also essential to face and grow from your past mistakes. As I stride along my journey within Key Club, I have strived to become one who helps others, not to make myself look better, but to push others to become the best versions of themselves. Therefore, I continue to push myself to embody these principles by understanding that Key Club is not about me. Key Club is a service organization, an organization where we serve not strive to be served.

Q uality

With such a large number of members within CNH, it is sometimes difficult to fully develop the quality of our dues-paid members. What makes you stand out as a candidate for the respective position that you are running for?

As a new member in key club I was never the first to put myself out there, or the loudest in the room, or even an extrovert at all. As I grew a passion for key club I took it upon myself to push my comfort zone, to challenge myself. I went from the quietest in the room, to yelling cheers on stage at fall rally as a lieutenant governor. Taking on new challenges, pushing my limits, this is my strength that distinguishes me from others. My commitment towards key club allowed me to push myself. Growing from a general member, to vice president and DLT member, to now a lieutenant governor; I have pushed myself far out of my comfort zone in order to serve my club and, my division to the best of my ability. Doing so, I have grown exponentially as a leader and a person. Pushing myself, facing challenges, unlocking new growth, this is all doubly applicable to serving this district. Undoubtedly there will be many obstacles to face during this term, and already our district is thriving. So striving for unknown potential, to challenge myself to unlock new growth is exactly what I can bring to the table as a candidate for district treasurer. My strong passion for this district paired with my willingness to push myself is what makes me confident in my abilities to improve our district; and to face the unknown with strength and with commitment towards all we can be.

What defines a truly meaningful contribution to service in Key Club? How have you strived to embody those principles in your contributions?

It isn't completing an act of service that makes it meaningful, but the impact that this act has on others. Home, school, or community; service makes an impact on people's lives. Service is giving back in whatever way you can, you don't need a sign up sheet and a 4am wake up call to serve others. From a new key club member, to my division lieutenant governor, I have learned what service truly means. A sleepless night of work, a small conversation with a lonely member, this is its own form of service, and this has an impact. No matter how big or small, impact is meaningful. As a member it was the small interactions that welcomed me into key club, and that started my journey to where I am today. Now, as a leader in my division I was able to make those small interactions with my members, I was able to impact their lives. So as a leader, and as a person I have strived towards impact, to talk to that lonely member, to hold the door open for a stranger. I will never forget being approached by a president in my division, a president who told me how my small interactions with them had pushed them out of their shell and had brought them together with a group of friends they call family. You can't measure how meaningful an act of service is, simply defined, when service makes an impact it is always meaningful.

What makes you stand out as a candidate for the respective position that you are running for?

My belief in the power of collaboration and teamwork set me apart and make me an ideal choice for the position I'm running for. I continuously want to strive to create inclusive environments where every voice is heard, and every contribution is valued. I am skilled at building and leading diverse teams and acknowledging the individual strengths of my team members, therefore fostering a culture of mutual respect and support amongst them. I see this shine well with my Division Leadership Team, which I have carefully led throughout this past term. I helped bring them together by having weekly game nights and monthly meetings to ensure they're comfortable and ready to serve. I gained their trust, and in turn, they have helped me through many of my darkest days while serving as LTG, and I could never be more grateful for their support. I am deeply committed to serving others and upholding the highest standards of excellence in everything I do. What defines a truly meaningful contribution to service in Key Club? How have you strived to embody those principles in your contributions?

What truly defines a meaningful contribution to service in Key Club is not only the service that you complete, but also how it has personally affected you as a whole. This starts by taking the initiative to create a positive change on the people around you. By taking this first step, you're already showing a significant step in your character and initiative. Whether it's cleaning up your local park, or volunteering at a nearby nursing home, the approach to service starts with a genuine desire to make a positive difference in the lives of others. In Key Club, as in any other context, service is nourished by collaboration and inclusivity. A meaningful contribution to service should also aim to bring a set of diverse perspectives together and empower other individuals to continue to build off the progress you made. Throughout my service experiences in Key Club, I've been able to reflect on my leadership abilities, communication skills, and grown a strong sense of empathy towards my community and the people I help. After every service project and volunteer opportunity, I take away with me the knowledge and a deeper understanding of challenges in the areas I serve and how I can further help on creating a positive change. Engaging in meaningful service allows individuals to develop their personal integrity. It's not just about what has been done, but also about how each experience and how they can apply their newly found skills to the other aspects of their life.

What makes you stand out as a candidate for the respective position that you are running for?

The first time I bombed a test, it was because I spent the night before planning a Key Club event rather than studying. When I got my test back, I received a whopping 53%. That following weekend, the event that I planned took place and was a success. Seeing the smiles of the members made everything worth it. During my time as a Lt. Governor, I've made sure to prioritize Key Club and the members I serve. I realized that as a leader, my actions have an effect. Since then, I've consistently upheld the values of Key Club and the various responsibilities I've had within the organization no matter how difficult. I face challenges head-on and approach situations from all angles and perspectives. I listen and collaborate with those around me to produce the best possible outcomes. I take time to ensure that resources, opportunities, and support are provided to every member. No matter how time-consuming or tedious endeavors are, members are always my priority. Whether it's sending out an email to every club in the district or answering any question that is asked of me, I will do so with my greatest effort because that is the type of person I am. As YOUR District Treasurer, I promise to prioritize the growth of our district even if it requires personal sacrifices. Although I failed that test, I will never fail you CNH and I will always put in 100% of my effort (not 53%).

What defines a truly meaningful contribution to service in Key Club? How have you strived to embody those principles in your contributions?

So many things can be defined as service. Cleaning up at a park is service and helping at a local elementary school is service. But what defines those things as service? How can we consider one thing service but not another? What truly defines a meaningful contribution to service? Impact. Meaningful service goes beyond a physical action, it's an act that has an impact. Whether that impact is on yourself, your community, or on others, an impact no matter how big or how little, creates an irreplaceable contribution that runs deeper than some may think. The smallest ripple causes the largest wave and that's what makes impact essential. Had I not been impacted by those around me, I wouldn't be in the position that I'm in today and have been able to experience the various opportunities that I've undergone. I strive to embody the principles of service and foster impact. I plan and promote various service events and highlight their effects and purposes. I educate members on the importance of service and assure them that their actions create change and that each of them positively impacts those around them. At service events, nothing makes me happier than seeing new faces. To know that my actions reflect on others and vice versa is an honor because I can understand how service has an impact. Ultimately, impact changes communities and lives, and that holds undeniable meaning. As YOUR District Treasurer, I strive for us to work together to impact lives.

What makes you stand out as a candidate for the respective position that you are running for?

What really sets me apart as a candidate is my strength of adapting. In a world that's always changing, being able to adapt isn't just useful; it's crucial, especially in leadership roles within Key Club. My time with Key Club has been a rollercoaster of learning, facing unexpected challenges, and constantly finding new ways to bring our service projects to life. This ability to pivot and evolve has not only helped me lead effectively but has also inspired those around me to see change as an adventure, not an obstacle.

This skill shines through in how I've steered our club through varied needs and challenges, always finding a way to make our impact felt where it's needed most. Adapting for me means more than just quick fixes; it's about looking ahead, anticipating the next curveball, and preparing our team to hit it out of the park. I always plan out every possible scenario that could occur before making an important decision.

This approach has helped us not just reach, but leap beyond our goals, no matter what surprises come our way.

In essence, my ability to seamlessly adapt is what I bring to the table. It's a trait I believe is key to navigating the complexities of our projects and the ever-evolving landscape of community service. With a heart ready to embrace change, I'm excited to guide our club through future challenges, transforming them into stepping stones for our growth and success.

What defines a truly meaningful contribution to service in Key Club? How have you strived to embody those principles in your contributions?

True service in Key Club isn't just about ticking boxes or racking up hours; it's about the heart-to-heart connections that leave a lasting imprint on both the community and ourselves. It's in the shared smiles, the lessons learned together, and the mutual growth that blooms from genuine interactions. Meaningful service is about creating ripples of change that resonate beyond the moment, laying down paths for future generations of leaders. This belief has guided my approach to service, particularly in my efforts to weave strong connections with local elementary schools in Fountain Valley.

By partnering with these schools, I've had the privilege of bringing our members closer to the vibrant, curious minds of young children. These engagements were more than just volunteer opportunities; they were bridges between generations, fostering a sense of community and continuity. We didn't just go there to teach or help; we went to learn, share, and grow alongside these potential future leaders.

This journey of service has been a profoundly human experience, highlighting the power of personal connections in driving change. It's shown me, and hopefully our members, that at the core of every meaningful service project is the desire to connect, understand, and uplift. Through this approach, I've aimed to embody the true spirit of Key Club service, one that cherishes and nurtures the human connections at its heart.

What makes you stand out as a candidate for the respective position that you are running for?

Serving as D27 South's lieutenant governor this term has opened me to a great range of opportunities to help my community. Working with clubs in lower economic classes I have directly listened to their wants and needs. To strengthen clubs in my own division I focused on education, hosting multiple webinars on the MUC, scholarships, and recognition. By continuously providing opportunities for members to ask questions, learn, we are able to ignite the passion of service within ourselves. It's time to ignite the passion of service across Key Club International. As trustee I will apply the lessons I've learned as lieutenant governor. Lessons of balancing, communicating, and empathy. This term I've had the opportunity to work on the International Communications task force. As a member of this task force I have gotten a better understanding of how the international level functions. Using this knowledge is a tool that I will utilize to grow the new term. As lieutenant governor the resources that I have provided on a division level can be utilized on an international level. To help clubs who are in a lower economic class or who do not have knowledge about Key Club lacking a foundation. These resources will strengthen the core of this organization, our clubs, as our clubs create Key Club International. Within this next term using the lessons and skills I've acquired throughout my journey in Key Club. I promise to pivot our organization to a direction towards success.

What defines a truly meaningful contribution to service in Key Club? How have you strived to embody those principles in your contributions?

A truly meaningful contribution to service, is a contribution that inspires another individual in Key Club to serve their own community. Whether be a small contribution of writing letters to a children's hospital or organizing a division wide clothing drive. The domino effect created from a contribution to service is what makes it meaningful. Throughout my three years in Key Club I've strived to embody these principles by planning impactful service opportunities for my members to participate in. As a lieutenant governor this term by actively highlighting the positives of participating in service projects or attending service events it has motivated new members to contribute to service as well. By attending service events and contributing in division service opportunities. As international trustee next term I want to create a domino effect of igniting service across Key Club International. The position of international trustee is to embody the impact of service as a role model for members across the world. I will ensure to be that role model for the new term of service.
